Continuation.....

On Monday, March 24, 2025, the office of the National Public Auditor (ONPA) welcomed Mrs. Selai Managreve as Audit Manager. Management and staff gathered in the ONPA conference room to meet and greet their newest Audit Manager.

Mrs. Managreve's educational background includes a Masters Degree in Business Administration, Postgraduate Diploma in Business Administration (General Managers) and a Bachelor of Commerce (Accounting and Economics majors), all attained from the University of the South Pacific. Prior to that she attained her Diploma in Business Accounting from the Fiji Institution of Technology, now called Fiji National University. Mrs. Managreve is an Associate Member of CPA Australia and a Provisional Member of the Fiji Institute of Accountants.

Mrs. Managreve started her professional career working for the Fiji Islands Bureau of Statistics as a Project Officer. She moved to Tuvalu and worked for the Office of the Auditor General as a Senior Auditor from 2008 to July 2020. In 2020, she became Acting Auditor General for the office and in 2001 she became their Deputy Auditor General.

The National Public Auditor and staff are happy to have Mrs. Managreve as the new Audit Manager. With Mrs. Managreve's previous professional work experience in the field of Government Auditing in the region, the ONPA is looking forward to learning the most from her and working together to fulfill ONPA's mandates.

Congratulations and welcome aboard Mrs. Managreve on your new role. We trust that your stay in FSM and journey with the office will be enjoyable and productive.
