

FSM Public Auditor Welcomes Mrs. Anita Ioanis as New Audit Supervisor

The FSM Office of the Public Auditor proudly welcomes Mrs. Anita Ioanis as its newly hired Audit Supervisor. Mrs. Ioanis brings with her decades of valuable experience, leadership, and dedication to public service.

Mrs. Ioanis is no stranger to the Office. She previously served with the former Office of National Public Auditor (ONPA) from 1990 to 1998 during the administration of former Public Auditor Jack Yakana. Her return marks a meaningful homecoming as she rejoins the organization with extensive professional knowledge and experience gained throughout her colorful career history.

Over the years, Mrs. Ioanis has built a respected career through her work in both government and professional service, earning recognition for her strong work ethic, commitment, and professionalism. Her broad experience and understanding of public accountability will be a tremendous asset to the Office and its mission to promote transparency and good governance within the Federated States of Micronesia.

As Audit Supervisor, Mrs. Ioanis will oversee audit activities, mentor audit staff, and help strengthen the Office's efforts in maintaining high standards of accountability and integrity.

Management and staff warmly welcome Mrs. Ioanis back to the Office and look forward to the leadership experience, and positive contributions she will bring to the organization.
